

Asas International Safety Passport approved by IOSH

The International Safety Passport course is approved by the most trusted global health and safety organization, IOSH. Designed to reflect the needs of today's employers giving learners everything they need to know and do to make their workplace safer.

Fact Sheet

- Asas International Safety Passport approved by IOSH is designed to provide learners with the basic safety knowledge to be considered in greater depth.

- It covers;

- Understanding of the International legal framework;
- Principles of behavioural based safety;
- HSE inspections;
- How to identify, reduce and control the key hazards in different types of workplaces;
- Trains learners how to effectively complete risk assessments and develop an action plan.

Who will benefit from ISP?

ISP is ideal for individuals at any level of an organisation. The course can supplement workplace inductions and be used in any sector worldwide. It gives everyone in the workplace an understanding of general knowledge required to work in a safe environment.

What will learners know after completing the course?

With in-depth focus on the subjects that matter, the ISP covers the core skills you need, wherever in the world you work. It covers the following:

- Recognise the general International Health and Safety legal framework
- Identify the impact of accidents
- Identify the aims and different types of HSE inspections
- Recognise the principles of behavioural based safety
- Identify a range of work hazards and related control measures
- Be able to write a basic Risk Assessment and provide suitable control measures

Successful learners are awarded an Asas International Safety Passport awarded by IOSH, with the course title International Safety Passport.

Assessment

There are three forms of assessment;

- 2 written examinations.
- A practical risk assessment

All assessments are pre-approved by IOSH.

Course Duration

16 Hours– 2 Days

Approved training provider
4414